

Provence Masterclass.

Paint a day in Cézanne's footsteps.

Meet at 9 a.m. at the Aurigon parking lot, 13100 Beaurecueil, at the foot of the Sainte-Victoire mountain.

With your travel journal and colors in the air, let yourself be guided until 1 p.m. into the luminous universe that inspired Cézanne.

Between sketches, watercolors, and personalized advice, you will learn to capture the essence of Provence and leave with unique pages from your notebook.

Of water and ochre.

At 2 p.m., after a lunch break, we will meet you at the murmuring fountain of the preachers, located near the Place des Prêcheurs, near the Hôtel de Gras.

Cobbled streets and sun-drenched facades... in the old town of Aix-en-Provence, which becomes a vibrant setting.

Pencils and watercolors in hand, you will capture the essence of this elegant city, between bursts of water and monuments steeped in history.

